

Ambassadors

Contributed by Carbon Currency Foundation

Resolutuion 03/2007. The Foundation Council of the Carbon Currency Foundation recognizing the support given for the developpment of the goals of the Foundation, has deliberated on June 25, 2007, the Professor FABRIZIO ZAMPIERI nominee as AMBASSADOR of the CARBON CURRENCY FOUNDATION

The Ambassador Fabrizio Zampieri holds a degree in Economics from the University Cà Foscari of Venice (Italy) and a Master's degree in banking. He also holds a Degree Honoris Causa in Financial Science (december 5, 2003). He work as private consultant for private companies and Financial Institutions for theyr "Private"; and "Corporate"; clientele. He teach at F.S.E. (Fondo Sociale Europeo) and is associated and Secretary in Padua (Italy) of Assoconsulenza. He is Minister of Finance of the Government of Antarcticland, www.antarcticland.org

Resolutuion 02/2010. The Foundation Council of the Carbon Currency Foundation recognizing the support given for the developpment of the goals of the Foundation, has deliberated on March 22, 2010, that the Professor EUGENIO CALIGIURI has been conferred with the title of AMBASSADOR of the CARBON CURRENCY FOUNDATION and nominated Legal Consultant of the Foundation.

The Ambassador, Professor Eugenio Roberto Caligiuri, Italo-Australian and son of long term Italian migrants to Australia who come down under to find better opportunities and freedom. He holds the following qualifications. MB BS (Hons); Doctor in Medicine; Master Degree in International Relations; Graduate Diploma in Regional Cooperation and Law University of Chile , Postgraduate Diploma in International Economics Pro-Chile –Diplomatic academy of Chile, PhD in Law, J.D. (US). Gran –PhD Russia Justice of the Peace 1984 for New South Wales Australia commissioned by the Governor of New South Wales , Appointed in 2005 Honorary Consul to Romania for the Republic of Equatorial Guinea for emeritus service to the country.

